Data breaches
To assist with protecting your identity following a data breach you can renew or replace your passport for the normal fee. For reimbursement options you will need to contact the responsible organisation.

What you need to know before you begin

RENEWING AN EXISTING PASSPORT

ADULT: You must have your recent passport (issued from 01 January 2006) and two new photos ↗

- If you don't have your recent passport you need to apply for a new one (see below)
- If your name, gender or birth details have changed there are extra requirements ⓘ

CHILD: You must have:

- The child's birth certificate
- Proof of citizenship (their citizenship certificate, Australian birth certificate)
- Proof one parent was an Australian citizen when the child was born (sometimes the grandparents too) ⓘ
- Proof of any legal custody or caring arrangements (family court orders, welfare orders, deceased parents)
- Signed consent from every parent and guardian
